

PART FOUR:
What is God teaching me?

Spiritual Experience

WHAT HAVE I LEARNED SO FAR?

What have I become aware of? What have I learned that I was not aware of before?

“Seek and ye shall find the still small voice of God.” That is definitely a statement of Truth, and that's truth with a capital T.

Communication with God is a two-way street... Not a one-way street as I was taught.

God can quietly walk up behind you when you least expect it and bless you profoundly.

There is no such thing as a dumb question to ask God.

God can and will use you right where you are, career wise, even or perhaps especially, in your own home. So housewives and house husbands take note.

Miracles are an everyday occurrence with God. We only think they are not.

In healing there is a direct connection between strong negative emotions and physical body ailments.

“Desire is the agent of my will”. In other words, if it wasn't there waiting for you...you couldn't desire it.

When you “desire” or “require” something from God, ask him/her, but do not beg. “Want” and “need” are negative words. They come from a feeling of lack. Remove them from your vocabulary.

Talk to God the very same as you would talk to your very best friend.

There is power in the spoken word

There is power in the sung word.

There is power in visualization, especially when you visualize with feelings.

Spiritual Experience

THE MIND OF AN ENGINEER

Many years ago, after completing an exhaustive career analysis test, the interviewer asked me, "Why are you applying for a position in accounting? You have the mind of an engineer."

Perhaps that is why I have always felt that I needed a solid foundation upon which I could build my faith and trust in God.

In any event, I moved forward taking what I had learned and putting it to work for my benefit instead of for my detriment. It appears as though for the first 40 years of my life I manifested by default instead of by intent because no human being in their right mind would have knowingly manifested all of the crap that I did.

Or was there another reason why I did it? Is it possible that I was to do that in order to help others learn and hence avoid falling into the brewing pot I fell into? You can make your own decision about that question when you come to the end of this book.